WAS BROOKS ROBBED OF A BIG FORTUNE

Attorney M. C. Chapman Wants to Know if Ex-Councilman Henry Hayes Was Not Accused of Robbery.

Was the late Lafayette Brooks, at one time a rich and influential business man living in East Oakland, robbed of a fortune by his partners? Attorney M. C. Chapman is trying to have this question answered in the Superior Court today.

The will of Mr. Brooks is being contested by his daughter, Mrs. Wilkinson, because the father left his estate to his widow, who is the contestant's step-mother.

There was an unexpected turn in the testimony offered in the contest this morning. Attorney M. C. Chapman attempted to show by close cross-examination of witnesses for the proponents of the will that the late Lafayette Brooks had been robbed by his business partners.

Brooks became a member of the wholesale butcher firm of Hayes, Brooks & Curick in 1885. The fact of the copartnership and subsequent dissolution was testified to by David S. Carrick, one of the partners.

David Symmes, who was the bookkeeper for the firm was the next witness called. In his direct examination he was asked questions relating to the condition of Brooks' mind prior to his death.

Attorney M. C. Chapman in the cross-examination took up the business relations of Brooks with his partners. A number of questions were asked implying that Brooks had been taken advantage of by his partner Henry Hayes. To most of these questions the witness gave negative or non-committal replies.

"Did you not tell Mr. Wilkinson, the husband of this contestant that the profits of the firm at the end of the second year were $37,000?" asked Attorney Chapman.

"No, sir, I did not," replied the witness.

Questions were then asked in regard to the sale of a house and lot on East Fourth street and Thirteenth avenue. Witness testified that the property had first been sold to Hardesty, a Nevada butcher. The consideration was $4,000. This money was charged to Hardesty. Later the property was transferred to Hayes, and he was charged with the $4,000 which had been advanced to Hardesty by the butcher firm.

Attorney Chapman asked the witness if this transaction had not taken place without the knowledge of Brooks and during his absence from this city.

Witness did not remember as to this.

"Well, did not Brooks accuse Hayes and you of having robbed him?" asked Attorney Chapman.

"No, sir, he did not," replied the witness.

The witness admitted that the books of the firm would show the transaction in detail, but the books had been taken away and he thought they had been burned.

"Don't you know," asked Attorney Chapman, "that that property was worth $22,500 and that land there was selling for $10 a front foot?"

"No, I do not know what the property was worth," replied the witness.

"Do you not know that Hayes got about $10,000 the better of that transaction," was asked.

"No, sir."

"Did not Brooks tell you that he did?"

"No, sir."

Witness testified that when Brooks and Hayes dissolved partnership in 1896 the former had taken a two-story brick building on Broadway valued at about $2,000. Hayes had received several other pieces of property in this city and Berkeley and a ranch in Tulare county.

Symmes is in the employ of Hayes at the present time.

Henry Hayes is ex-president of the City Council and an old resident of East Oakland.

GIANTS IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION MAKE HARD STATEMENTS

A. A. Moore Hammers Away at His Opponents—W. S. Goodfellow Defends His Good Name—Charles Wheeler Makes an Attack on the Trustees in the Varney Case.

GRABBING AT AN ESTATE.

"They (referring to Attorney Wheeler et al.) are the last people on earth whom I would consult in this matter, engaged as they are and as I believe in trying to divide an estate among people to whom it does not belong. I don't concede that Wheeler is right, but I am ready to justify myself in this as in any other act of my life."—Statement made by Attorney W. S. Goodfellow in the Varney trust contest.

VILLAINS AND SCOUNDRELS

"They are calling our clients scoundrels and villains, and it is not likely that we are going to tell them whom we desired to appoint. Mr. Wheeler, you are trying to make T. H. B. Varney out a robber."—Statement of A. A. Moore in the Varney trust contest.

Wheeler then read a number of authorities, which he held to be decisions in cases parallel to the Varney suit. "It is not a matter of right," said Attorney Wheeler, after reading the decisions, "that these trustees may appoint a third trustee, but since the case is in chancery, your honor should exercise the power of appointment."

Attorney Wheeler then commenced his expected arraignment of the trustees of the Varney estate.

"From their own evidence," said he, "I believe that this court has ample reasons for removing these two trustees and appointing a third one. That trust is valued at upwards of $100,000 and it has earned 2 1/2 per cent on the amount invested. I propose to show to your honor the course that the trustees have pursued for the past ten years.

"The total dividends for the last ten years have been $101,000. In round numbers and $20,000 of that has gone into the pockets of the trustees. They have appropriated the amount to their own use. They have kept it for themselves. Since 1890 these executors and trustees have kept on deposit $200,000 of the estate funds. This $200,000 has been loaned out and has earned interest, according to their own contentions. The $200,000 which they have pocketed has come largely from the $200,000. Perhaps they have been unable to discriminate between their duties as trustees. If so, they should be removed. If your honor does not consider this gross misconduct on the part of the trustees, it will be the first time, so far as my reading goes, that such an opinion has been held by a chancellor in the history of chancery proceedings.

"They are grown men and not children and they have done these things wilfully and knowingly. They have in short misappropriated the funds of the estate.

"As for the Bank of Livermore, we find that each of these trustees have put in their pockets $100 a month for their work as trustees; that Pitcher, as manager of the bank, was paid $4,000 and $5,000 per annum, with the concurrence of his co-trustees; that T. H. B. Varney received $200 a year and John Taylor $300 a year for their connection with the bank; that at each meeting of the directors of the bank they changed $3 apiece for attending it; that T. H. B. Varney charged $10 a year for expending the bank books."

"The $100 a month was the compensation fixed by Judge Ellsworth," said Goodfellow, "and the other amounts charged were shown to him and were approved by him."

"I am surprised at such a statement," said Wheeler.

"Well," said Goodfellow, "the document is in evidence."

"It is not the amount charged for expending the books that I object to," said Wheeler. "It is simply that it shows the incapacity of the trustees. Yesterday it was shown to your honor that one of the trustees had been allowed to make money out of the insurance of the buildings belonging to the estate."

"Now, where are the propositions that I think are worthy of considerable comment, notwithstanding the feelings of the gentlemen in court. If a spade's a spade it should be called a spade, and these matters, these flagrant breaches of trust, should be discussed in plain language. I refer to the Kennedy mining stock. When the trustees were executors of the estate they found themselves in possession of 15,000 shares of stock of the Kennedy mine and John Taylor found himself in possession of 5,000 shares of the stock. Your honor heard Taylor's recollection tested and it was not very good, but he remembered distinctly that 500 shares of stock had been paid for by Mr. Clark. In January, 1891, 500 shares of stock were purchased by John Taylor for $300. On February 4th 500 shares of stock were sold to other people for $102.50. On February 4th, according to the books, they sold to themselves stock at $3 a share and sold to others stock at $10 a share. On February 6th it was sold for nearly $4 a share. It was on February 4th that the entry was made in the bank book that an overdraft of $4,800 was drawn by T. H. B. Varney et al. On the stand Varney could not recollect who the 'als' were. It is fair to assume and it is an irresistible inference that this money was drawn to pay for the 1,500 shares of stock which the accounts show were sold to George C. Hixon."

"Now, where are his holdings of mining stock and that he has kept his holdings. Why the element of concealment? Why the return of cash, verified by three trustees, should have been itemized? The sale of stock to Hixon? He was never a shareholder and the shares stood in the name of the trustees themselves. Why this representation to the court concerning stock they had sold to themselves at a price which was not the market price? I ask whether they can plead the baby act. If John Taylor had pled on to the Kennedy stock for the estate as he did for him-

TALKS ABOUT A ROBBER.

"Well, if you think that these breaches of trust make him out a robber, we claim to have sustained the charges. Mr. Goodfellow, if you are going to take offense at my remarks, let us consider them unsaid."

Here are two trustees charged with misappropriation of the trust funds, and it is a fact that for the last five or six years Mr. Goodfellow has to a certain extent acted as their attorney."—Statement of Attorney Charles Wheeler in the Varney trust contest.

SCANDAL OVER THE PNEUMATIC TUBE SERVICE.

Sensational Charges in the House Concerning Postoffice Bill Kill a Big Appropriation.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—William King, who served in the Fifty-first Congress from the State of Utah, was sworn in as a Representative of that State to succeed Brigham H. Roberts, who was denied a seat.

Without preliminary business the House resumed consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill.

The item appropriating $75,000 for pneumatic tubes, an increase of $50,000 over the appropriation for the current year, was the subject of two hours' debate under the arrangement in public opinion of the House.

Mr. Little of Arkansas opposed the pneumatic tube service, which he held was unnecessary and of no material benefit in expediting the mails. The charges for the service in New York, he said, were outrageously exorbitant. The government was paying $25,000 a year for a six inch iron pipe besides the cost of operating the machines.

Mr. Moody of Massachusetts also opposed the extension of the tube service.

"It was entered upon," he said, "it would add in the near future millions to the already swollen expenditures of the Postoffice Department. Taking this item as a text, Mr. Moody made an urgent plea for retrenchment in public expenditures. Every branch of the public service, he said, was asking for its share of the enormous revenues which were being collected."

LEIGH ROBBINS WOULD BE FREE

Did the Best He Could to Support His Bride But She Wanted to Put on Too Much Style.

If Leigh Robbins, the hero of the romantic elopement and marriage at San Jose with pretty Lulu Noe, and now the defendant in a divorce suit in which Lulu is the plaintiff, feels any of the pangs of a disappointed lover, he gives no evidence of the fact in his appearance and demeanor. Scarcely out of his teens, he looks rather the schoolboy than a man who has had marital experience and woes and who is soon to be legally separated from the girl he once pledged himself to cherish and to love.

To satisfy the interest evinced in the case by the public which has already read the story of the heroine in this romantic episode, a TRIBUNE reporter had a talk with Mr. Robbins this morning to ascertain what the youthful Romeo had to say on the subject.

WAS EXPECTED.

"I am not at all annoyed by what has taken place or what has been published in the case. It was not strange that things have happened as they have. It was to be expected. People always say, as soon as they hear of a marriage, such as ours was, that a divorce may be expected before long. I don't think I can not expect that. I thought that we would be able to live together after a time and that there would be no need for a divorce. In fact, we never let our minds dwell on such a topic."

WHO PLANNED THE TRIP?

"I knew Miss Noe five years before I was married to her. For about two months before we were married, we were very much in one another's company, as lovers generally are. We did not get married here because we did not want to have people know of our marriage. I will not say who it was suggested the trip to San Jose, for the purpose of getting married. It is sufficient to say that she proposed to me. Who put such a rumor in circulation? I will not say anything about that."

HOUSEKEEPING SUGGESTED.

"Why was the marriage announced at the time that it was? Simply because they, the parents of my wife, learned of our marriage and they told us that we ought to go living together. I told them at the time that I might not be able to support Lulu as well as the might like, and they said that I might do the best I could. They thought I was better off than I was. Our last place of abode was near Twenty-third street and Telegraph avenue. We rented a place there. We furnished our house. As to how it was furnished, I don't wish to speak. They might say that they did more toward it than I did."

married life. They don't want to live like people of mature years would live. If I was not able to support a home, it was because as I have said young people expect more than mature people, and everybody thought that I was better off than I was. But I am not dissatisfied over that fact, because I am young yet. I did not understand how much style my wife wanted to live in. Did I give her jewelry? Yes. A pair of garters? There is little use in talking over such a subject, but I will admit that I did make her a present of such things."

BORN HERE.

"As to wearing apparel which she may have needed or which I may have given her, I shall say nothing. I want to let this thing go on just as quietly as it can. There is no necessity for me to make a statement, even if I could not give my wife all the comforts which she might have asked. Everybody in this city knows me. All the banks know me, and I have been in this office of Mr. Macdonald's for seven years. When a man remains in a place seven years you may be sure that he is steady. Besides that, I have lived here all my life and I have a number of friends."

WILL NOT CONTEST.

"No, I do not intend to contest the suit of my wife for divorce. And I don't want to say or do anything which would interfere with the case. There is nothing in it which you have not already heard."

OTHER SUITORS.

"I don't know that my wife has another suitor whom she is to marry. I don't think she had any such purpose in bringing this suit. I never heard till now that she and Rev. Mr. Smith were spoken of as lovers. I know that he is living in her house, and I have seen him. He is having trouble of his own I believe."

SAN DIEGO'S FORT.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LOS ANGELES, April 25.—General Shafter, returning from a visit of inspection to the fort at San Diego, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon. The General said it was his duty to inspect every post in his district at least once each year, and this was the annual inspection. He found everything in the pink of condition.

"In fact," he said, "the post could not be in better condition at the present time. Everything is in perfect order, the guns are as bright as possible and not a word of fault could be found. At the post at San Diego there is at present a full battery of artillery. A new ten-inch gun is being mounted, and that, of course, means a great deal of work. It is one of the new style rapid fire guns and is very complete."

Increase of Business

always follows the fulfillment of promises—that's why we are enlarging our premises.

WE DON'T DENY IT, our store is crowded. Goods are everywhere—on shelves, counters and tables—in sight and out of sight—even aisles and basement chock full. Then consider the steady stream of shoppers that visit our store daily. Result—sad shortness of necessary room for perfect comfort. But bear with us a little longer.

We appreciate your coming to take advantage of the efforts we have made to please you. Be patient just a few days and we promise you all the comfort and all the elbow-room you may ask.

OUR NEW STORE is nearly ready. It adjoins our present premises. Bricklayers and carpenters are as busy as bees. Our carefully-laid plans will soon be completed. When they are you will find our store AN IDEAL SHOPPING PLACE—roomy, well-lighted, stocked with reliable goods tastefully and handily displayed at guaranteed prices. And then our help—we are proud of them. Bright, patient, experienced and intelligent, they will give you that polite attention which alone can make shopping a perfect pleasure.

make astronomy their profession. The associated students of Paris have organized a series of lectures for the first time in August at which they will entertain visiting students from the universities throughout the world. President Wheeler received today from the Comite de l'Association Generale des Etudiants de Paris an invitation to the students of the University of California to accept their hospitality. They ask that the students of the University of California who expect to visit the exposition should meet and choose two chairmen of their delegation, and should place these chairmen immediately in communication with the committee in order that correspondence may be direct. The President has asked the students of the University of California to visit the exposition to meet in room 18, North Hall, at 8:45 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, to choose such chairmen.

THREE SPEAKERS WERE KIDNAPED BY SOPHS.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 24.—Chagrined at their defeat in the rush on the campus yesterday, the sophomores of the University took revenge on their freshmen conquerors last night by kidnapping three of the invited speakers for the freshmen Bourdon festival given to Oakland. A number of sophomores lurked from their homes in the vicinity of the freshmen class, J. A. Moriarty and H. L. Padlock, seized and handcuffed them and carried them to Oakland. While their guardians were asleep Padlock and Moriarty made their escape, and after getting the handcuffs off from their wrists returned to Berkeley to report the kidnapping to the freshmen. The sophomores who were captured until this afternoon, when a party of his classmates descended on the house where he was confined, took prisoner the guardians and freed their speaker. The sophomores and their speaker, Mr. Smith and N. L. Stark, were then tied up in turn.

STUDENTS ELECT SALARIED MANAGERS.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 24.—The Associated Students' election for a salaried manager and two assistants resulted in the choice of Reno Hutchinson for the former position and Ralph T. Fisher for the latter. The race between Fisher and Nathan Moran was not close, the vote being 422 to 261. C. E. Thomas, who opposed Hutchinson, was defeated by a vote of 48 to 265. Early in the campaign the leading athletes of the college started a fight against Thomas which was undoubtedly well defeated. As the students of the college contributed directly but $500 of the $20,000 income of the association, the remainder being the proceeds from the various athletic contests, the student body felt that the football and track men should have considerable influence in choosing their manager. Reno Hutchinson has been prominent in student affairs ever since entering college. He played football for the University in '95, and has held various student offices. His principal business experience has been gained as general secretary of the college. He is a member of the Junior League, and is on the Intercollegiate Debating Committee and on the Executive Committee of his class. He also had prominent part in the farce at the Grand Opera House.

TRACK MANAGER WILL SECURE THE MONEY.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA April 24.—Track Manager Decoto said today he expects to have $3,000 with which to start on the Eastern tour next Friday. Today's subscriptions were very encouraging and brought the fund up to the $2,000 mark with many sources yet to hear from. The team has practically been settled upon and will include Drum, Cadogan, Hoffman, Bakewell, Shaw, Woolsey, Walsh and Fraser, with Squires, Simonds, Service and Powell, among the possibilities. They will go in the usual sleeping cars and eat in the dining car instead of having their own car with private cooking facilities, as first planned.

Tame Celebration

BERKELEY, April 24.—The freshmen's Bourdon celebration, which was held this evening in the gymnasium, proved somewhat disappointing. The exercises merely consisted of a mock trial of certain members of the society by the Saturday sharpshooters. The exercises were very tame and the participants were sentenced for eternity to the infernal regions. The participants were attired in red suits, and in a dim light presented a fantastic appearance.

AN AGED WOMAN BREAKS AN ARM.

Old Man Missing—U. C. R. 113 Team Meets Defeat.

BERKELEY, April 25.—Mary Denny, an old lady residing in West Berkeley, met with a serious accident while shopping in San Francisco yesterday. She attempted to follow a clerk at Smith's cash store into the basement, but tripped and fell, breaking her arm. She was taken to the hospital, where the fracture was noticed. As she refused to be put to bed she was allowed to return to her home. She is reported to be very wealthy.

The Marshal has been notified of the disappearance of Dr. William Graves, who wandered away from his home at 2237 Shannon way last Monday and has not been heard from since. Dr. Graves was formerly a ship surgeon in the employ of the Oceanic Steamship Company until about five years ago. Of late his mind has been failing, and it is feared that he got lost in the hills, as he was last seen going into the forest.

STAMP COLLECTORS ORGANIZE.

The stamp collectors of Berkeley are about to form an association for the purpose of mutual interest. A meeting will be held next Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the home of A. L. Ott, 1091 Leola street, at which the organization will be perfected.

TRUSTEES TO ENJOY OUTING.

President W. M. McElmound of the Board of Trustees will take the members of the board and their wives on a tour to the coast on the bay next Saturday. Many of the trustees visited and a delightful time is anticipated.

Test for Yourself the Wonderful Curative Properties of Swamp-Root.

To Prove What This Great Kidney Remedy Swamp-Root will do for YOU Every reader of the "Tribune" may have a Sample Bottle Free.

Reporters Have Convincing Interviews with Prominent People in Greater New York Regarding Wonderful Cures

From New York Journal, January 4th, 1900

DR. KILMER & CO., 65th POLICE PRECINCT, GREATER NEW YORK, Nov. 11, 1899.

In justice to you, I feel it is my duty to send you an acknowledgment of the receipt of the sample bottle of Swamp-Root you so kindly sent me. I had been out of health for the past five years with kidney and bladder trouble. Had our best physicians prescribe for me. They would relieve me for the time being, but the old complaint would in a short time return again. I sent for a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, and I found it did me a world of good. Since then I have taken eight small bottles bought at my drug store and I consider myself perfectly cured. I do not have to get up during the night to urinate as I formerly did, three or four times a night, but now sleep the sleep of peace. My back is all right again and in every way I am a new man. Two of my brother officers are still using Swamp-Root. They, like myself, cannot say too much in praise of it. It is a boon to mankind. We recommend it to all humanity who are suffering from kidney and bladder diseases. My brother officers (whose signatures accompany this letter) as well as myself thank you for the blessing you have brought to the human race in the compounding of Swamp-Root. We remain, Yours very truly, JAMES COOK, HUGH E. BOYLE, JOHN J. BODKIN.

THEODORUS VAN WYCK, former Editor of the Mt. Vernon News, and now one of the most prosperous real estate brokers in New York, 128 South Eleventh Avenue, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I had been a sufferer for the past five years from severe attacks of rheumatism and kidney trouble, probably contracted by exposure on hunting expeditions and wading streams. I tried many remedies, the patent and other kind, but none of them seemed to do me any good. I was persuaded by an old and valued friend to try Swamp Root, and frankly confess that it has benefited me as no other medicine has. I now feel like myself again. I do not have the constant aches and pains which at one time seemed to make life unbearable. It is a positive benefit in ailments of this kind. I always keep it in the house, as it is just as necessary as bread and butter.

Yours respectfully, Theodorus Van Wyck

EDITORIAL NOTE—The great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, is so remarkably successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all our readers who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent absolutely free by mail. Also a book telling all about kidney and bladder troubles and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured by Swamp-Root. Be sure and mention reading this generous offer in the "Oakland Tribune" when sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y.

SHE WILL NOT LEAVE CHURCH.

Miss DeFremery Remains Organist for Presbyterians.

Miss Virginia deFremery, who recently resigned her position as organist of the First Presbyterian Church, has been induced to reconsider her action, or, rather, the trustees of the church have acceded to her request for an increase of salary and she has agreed to remain in charge of the organ.

Miss deFremery has acted in the capacity of organist of the church for the last twelve years, and she has during that time been one of the principal factors in the equipment of the magnificent choir of the church. She stands in the foremost rank of church organists, and is highly esteemed throughout the city. When she presented her resignation some time ago the trustees accepted her letter as final and proceeded to make arrangements for her successor, when an effort succeeded toward the adjustment of the question of salary, over which a difference of opinion had arisen between the organist and the trustees. That ended yesterday in practical accession to the organist's request. The news that she is to continue in the First Presbyterian Church will be received with much interest by the members of the church and the congregation.

Speaking of the matter, Trustee W. H. Quinn said: "Miss deFremery will not leave us, as the trustees, after careful consideration of the situation in the church, have induced her to withdraw her resignation. The arrangements which have been made are entirely satisfactory to Miss deFremery."

TROUBLE OVER SCHOOL SPORTS.

Matter to be Taken up By the Board of Education.

There is trouble between the members of the local Board of Education and the student athletes of the city, growing out of an effort which the Board is making to control the sports at the public schools. According to the educators, the chief drawback to athletics in the public schools is that the pupils take too much interest in the sports, thereby neglecting their studies. Another drawback is the expenses which the students incur in preparing for their field days and their interest in the sports, without giving entertainments which do not meet with the approval of the Board.

The Academic Athletic League, which has full control of school athletics about the bay has recently been holding field events during school days. And this has been called to the attention of the Board, and that body will consider the matter at its next meeting. City School Superintendent McElmound states that he will recommend to the Board of Education at its next meeting that the Board assume some control over the athletics of the schools. "Not that the students shall be restricted," said Mr. McElmound, "but that the directors will know what the boys are doing and can also take some action regarding the detriment of the regular school work."

Superintendent McElmound had a talk with the boys at his office today. The boys agreed to withdraw from the League at all times, so that the league and various managers of the baseball and football teams will not overstep their limit to the detriment of the regular school work.

PERISHED IN A TENEMENT FIRE.

Three Members of One Family Burned to Death.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, April 25.—Three persons were killed and three severely injured in a fire early this morning in the six-story tenement, 74 Forsythe. The dead are: HANNA C. LIEBOWITZ, aged 13 years; AMELIA LIEBOWITZ, aged 10 years; JOSEPH LIEBOWITZ, aged 6 years.

The injured: Simon Liebowitz, 23 years old, father of the dead children; Dora Liebowitz, aged 34; Michael Liebowitz. The injured persons were burned about the face and hands while making their escape. None of them is seriously injured. The house is a typical East Side tenement, four families living on a floor. There were many thrilling escapes and brave rescues by the firemen and police. The children who lost their lives were overcome by the smoke on the floor before they could reach the window. When the firemen succeeded in getting to the top floor they found the bodies of the children. All had been suffocated, but the bodies were blackened by the flames. The damage to the building was about $50,000.

ED HUNT WILL BE THE NEW CAPTAIN.

The election of a Captain for Company A will take place this evening. First Lieutenant Ed Hunt will be chosen for the place.

Arrested For Burglary.

William Solts, a painter who for some time has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of burglary. Solts was caught in the home of Mrs. Lizzie Scott at 125 Brush street, examining several articles. He was discovered by Mrs. Scott. When seen he tried to hide in a basement, where he was found later by Policemen Hill.

Postmaster Will Speak.

Postmaster Friend has kindly consented to speak on Postoffices and How They Are Run, to the members and friends of the Thursday Evening Club, West Oakland, on Friday, April 27th, at 8 o'clock.
